"A few days ago, during the absence of Mr. Cohen, the Board of Directors met and ousted Mr. Cohen from the office of treasurer. In doing this Mr. Kimmich used a proxy given to him by Mr. Cohen, but which had been revoked. This angered Mr. Cohen, and he went to Pittsburg to protect his rights and to legally regain the office from whitch he had been removed.

"Mr. Kimmich, who was the representative of both of us there, had in the meantime handled certain checks and stocks which Mr. Cohen claimed he had no right to do.
